

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the education of our youth is important to the future of our City, State, and Nation; and

WHEREAS, teaching students to be involved and knowledgeable about local government is something we should always strive to be doing; and

WHEREAS, Seniors from Madison Consolidated High School and Shawe Memorial High School learned about local government today from City and County officials; and

WHEREAS, these students have contributed positively to our community and local government; and

WHEREAS, the teachers who brought their students to be a part of this day are to be commended; and

WHEREAS, we wish to honor the students, teachers, and City & County government officials who participated in this day;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Damon Welch, Mayor of the City of Madison, Indiana do hereby proclaim today, the 22nd day of May, 2012 to be in Madison. I hope all citizens will join me in showing our gratefulness and appreciation to the students, educators, and officials who were involved.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Madison to be affixed this 22nd day of May, 2012.

Mayor Damon Welch
