Common Council Rules of Procedure Discussion

State Statute IC-36-4-6-12

- A majority vote of the legislative body is required to pass an ordinance, unless a greater vote is required by statute.

State Statute IC-36-4-6-12

- Prescribes that a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all the elected members, after unanimous consent, is required to pass an ordinance of the legislative body on the same day or at the same meeting at which it is introduced. (Does not apply to a zoning ordinance or amendment to a zoning ordinance that is adopted under IC 36-7 (Plan Commission Statute)).

Common Council Rules of Procedure Discussion

City of Madison Proposed Ordinance 2024-6

- Origins of current city ordinance date back to 1966 with modest changes made in 2005 and 2015.
- Proposal aligns city procedures with state statutes and common practice across the state and is part of our effort to modernize city policies.
- Doubles the public comment period from one to two. Allows discussion sooner.
- Is more responsive to conducting business for the city and its constituents and recognizes the change in how council receives information.
- City is often facing external deadlines, rate increases, weather challenges, inflation pressures, contractor matters, and supply chain issues and time is often a critical factor in decision-making.
- Maintains the two-week period between discussion and decision. In some instances, this will reduce decision-making process by one month or more.
- Maintains existing option to postpone or table action for more deliberation.

Examples

Zoning Application for 1221 Clifty Drive

- June 25th – Application for rezoning submitted to City.
- August 12th – Application heard by Plan Commission.
- September 3rd – First reading at Council. No action.
- September 17th – Second Reading at Council to be held.
- October 8th – Third Reading and decision on application.

In the instance of zoning or BZA, when the application involves city council, the property owner is waiting a minimum of over three months for a decision, which impairs their ability to make commitments.

('66 Code, § 30.02)

§ 30.07 RULES FOR PROCEDURE.

The following rules are adopted and enacted for the government of the Common Council of the city, its officers and committees:

- (A) Preparations for meetings.
 - (1) The Mayor's assistant is to receive all proposed resolutions prior to the close of business on the fifth day preceding the Council meeting.
 - (a) Resolutions are to be placed on the agenda with their title and sponsoring Council member(s);
 - (b) Resolutions should be presented to Council members, in their printed form, on the fourth day prior to the Council meeting; and
 - (c) A resolution may be proposed at any time following the cut-off date if it is approved by the Council President Pro Tempore or the Mayor.
 - (2) The Mayor's assistant is to receive all proposed bills prior to the close of business on the fifth day preceding the next Council meeting.
 - (a) Proposed bills are to be placed on the agenda with their title and sponsoring Council member; and
 - (b) Proposed bills should be presented to Council members, in their printed form, on the fourth day prior to the Council meeting.
 - (3) If a department head has a written report, they should make every effort to present it to the Mayor's assistant five days prior to the Council meeting.
 - (4) City Council member packets and the supporting documents should be presented to Council members no later than four days prior to a meeting.

(B) The Mayor shall preside over all meetings of the Common Council. In case of the absence of the Mayor during any meeting, or in the event that they should be disqualified to preside by the application of any law of the state or ordinance of the city at any meeting thereof, then the President Pro Tempore, who shall be elected at the first regular meeting of the Council held after their election as such Council, shall preside.

(IC 36-4-6-8)

(C) The presiding officer of the Common Council shall call the members to order promptly at the date and hour appointed for the meeting thereof. During the session the presiding officer shall preserve order and decorum and shall decide all questions of order. An appeal from any decision rendered by the presiding officer may be taken by any member whereupon the Clerk- Treasurer shall call the roll of members, and those who favor sustaining the decision of the presiding officer shall vote "aye" ("yes"), and those who oppose sustaining such decision shall vote "nay" ("no") and if a majority of the members present vote "nay," the decision of the President shall be deemed overruled. Otherwise, it shall be deemed sustained.

(D) The presiding officer shall state all questions distinctly and ask that all who are in favor say "aye" ("yes"), and after the affirmative voice is expressed, ask all who are opposed say "nay" ("no"), and then shall decide whether the question is carried by affirmative or negative vote. However, if a decision is called for by any member, the Clerk-Treasurer shall call the roll, and each member, when their name is called, shall respond "aye" ("yes"), to vote for the affirmative of such question, and "nay" ("no"), to vote for the negative thereof. The result of the vote as thus cast shall be announced by the Clerk-Treasurer to the President who shall then decide whether such question has been passed by a majority vote of all the other members present and voting.

(E) All questions relating to the priority of business shall be decided without debate.

(F) If any member transgresses the rules of the Common Council, or commits any other breach of order or decorum, the presiding officer shall call them to order, either on their own motion, or at the instance of any member who shall call attention to the same by voicing a point of order. In such a case the member so called to order shall refrain from further comment immediately unless permitted by the presiding officer to explain their remarks or action. If the transgression of the rules or other breach of order or decorum is serious enough in the judgment of the Council, the member so offending may be censured or fined by vote of the Council. On all points of order the member affected shall have the right to appeal the decision of the presiding officer.

(G) When two or more members speak at once the presiding officer shall decide which shall proceed, and the recognized member shall have the privilege of the floor.

(H) When the presiding officer is putting a question to vote, when any member is speaking, when the vote is being taken, or any other business requiring the attention of the Common Council is being transacted, no member shall engage in private discourse, walk out of or across the room, or in any other manner create confusion or disturb the proceedings.

(I) When any motion is made and seconded it shall be stated by the presiding officer before debate, and every motion shall be presented in writing, if demanded by the presiding officer or any member.

(J) After a motion is stated by the presiding officer it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Common Council, but may be withdrawn by the mover, by consent of the second thereof, at any time before decision or amendment.

(K) When any question is pending, or under debate, no motions shall be in order but the following: to adjourn, to lay on the table for the previous question, to postpone, to commit, or to amend, which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are here arranged.

(L) When any question has been once decided, any member voting in the majority may move for a reconsideration thereof at the same, or the next, regular meeting of the Common Council, and resolutions adopted may be rescinded by subsequent resolutions. Ordinances may be repealed by subsequent ordinances, and ordinances may be suspended for a time definitely stated by subsequent ordinances. Reports and all other papers and documents properly before the Council may be committed and recommitted at the pleasure of the Council. When the reading of any paper is called for, if objections are made, it shall be decided by the Council, and no paper shall be read, if objected to, without the consent of the Council.

(M) Motions to adjourn shall always be in order, except that when one motion to adjourn has been decided in the negative, it shall not be in order to entertain another motion to adjourn until some other business has intervened. All motions to adjourn, to lay on the table, and for the previous question, shall be decided without debate.

(N) When any matter is indefinitely postponed by the Common Council, such action shall be taken to mean that such matter shall be regarded as postponed for the time being, and shall be brought to the attention of some member, which motion shall be seconded by some other member, and which may be made at any subsequent meeting of the Council.

(O) The votes on the final passage of any ordinance or resolution shall be by calling the roll and recording the "ayes" ("yesses") and "nays" ("noes"). Any member may demand the "ayes" ("yesses") and "nays" ("noes") to be taken on any motion or question, and when so demanded the questions shall be so put and recorded.

(P) In all votes taken where there is a tie, the presiding officer, shall give the vote in order to break the tie.

(Q) The Mayor, when presiding over the Common Council as the presiding officer thereof, shall have the right to speak on any question before the Council and while so addressing the Council, shall be subject to all rules governing the Council.

(R) No one who is not a member of the Common Council shall be permitted to address the same except by petition, unless by the unanimous consent of the Council; however, any city officer may, when called upon, make a verbal report.

(S) No rule of the Common Council shall be suspended except upon motion, and an affirmative “aye” (“yes”) and “nay” (“no”) vote of two-thirds of all the members of the Council. The rule shall not be suspended for the second or third reading of a bill, or the passage thereof, except upon an affirmative “aye” (“yes”) and “nay” (“no”) vote of all the members of the Council present and voting.

(T) The Mayor shall appoint all standing and select committees of the Common Council.

(U) The Chief of Police, or designee, shall preserve order and decorum in the Council chamber during the meetings of the Common Council; they shall act as the sergeant-at-arms for the Council, and as such shall obey the orders of the presiding officer;

(V) The passage of resolutions shall require a majority “aye” (“yes”) and “nay” (“no”) vote by a majority of elected members.

('66 Code, § 30.01(1) - (19), (23) - (26)) (Ord. passed 4-25-05; Am. Ord. 2015-13, passed 12-22-15)

§ 30.08 PRIVILEGES OF CITIZENS.

When the call is made for that purpose, citizens present in the Council chambers shall have the privilege of presenting petitions, memorials, remonstrances, and the like, either written or verbal, and such matter shall be referred to the proper committee/department/board or otherwise disposed of before any further business is transacted. After such action, the order of business shall proceed as set forth in § 30.04.

(A) The presiding officer shall have the option to require speakers to sign-in, in advance, if they intend to speak during public comment and/or impose a 4 minute time limit for any speaker. Either the presiding officer or the majority of present and voting Council members may waive the 4 minute time limit.
