Presentation of petitions, memorials, remonstrances, introduction of motion & guests: Black History Month

Proclamation: Mayor Bob Courtney recognizes February 2025 as Black History Month, honoring the rich history, culture, and contributions of Black Americans. Madison played a key role in the Underground Railroad, is home to Indiana's first commissioned Black school, and has a long legacy of Black community leadership. The city remains committed to diversity, inclusion, and historical preservation, highlighted by the unveiling of Legacy Park and a bronze bust of George DeBaptiste in 2024. This month, we celebrate the achievements and impact of Black Americans in Madison and beyond. The proclamation was presented to Sue Livers who gave a brief statement regarding Black History in Madison.
